

Press Release: MX Connections Presents Team Xposure Motorsports (Pro-Am)(GNCC)

MX Connections is pleased to add Team XPosure Motorsports Pro/Am to the list of teams featured on MXConnections.com. TXM is a newly formed team looking to contest the GNCC series this season. Featuring professional rider Andy Shea and amateur racer Christopher Douglas along with team Manager Jim Douglas, the team is preparing for its first race in Vero Beach Florida on March 3-6.

Andy Shea is the 2002 GNCC 250A Series Champion. In 2005 he was a member of the Throttlehead.com factory team. Andy will be riding a KTM 250XCF. In 2006, after returning from an injury that kept Andy on the sidelines, Andy won every race that he entered for the balance of the year.

Christopher Douglas is continuing to develop in his quest to reach the professional ranks. Competing in the 200-B class aboard a KTM 200 XC (2-stroke), Chris is working to continue to build on the momentum he has gained from the past few seasons.

Team XPosure Motorsports is presently seeking sponsorship support to assist them with competing in the GNCC Series this year. Having secured the support necessary to contest the entire series, TXM is looking to partner with existing industry sponsors to take advantage of the advertising opportunities offered through sponsoring this team.

With the goal of helping Race Teams connect with advertising and brand imaging opportunities, MX Connections is pleased to announce the addition of Team XPosure Motorsports to the family of teams that we support. There is nothing more exciting than a new team entering the series.
