

Xposure Motorsports scrapes a 7-2 finish in Morganton

Round 3: March 29 - 30, Morganton, NC

Team Xposure Motorsports arrived in Morganton NC ready to race Round 3 of the Can-Am Grand National Cross Country Series at the FMF Steele Creek GNCC race track. Looking forward to a good mud-race, the team got just what it ordered.

Andy Shea got the team off to a good start with a seventh place finish in the XC2 class for 23 overall. Chris Douglas held-on to second place in 200B to take over the points lead in the class. According to Chris, "My Plessinger Cycle, Moose Racing, KTM was working great today". "I am really happy to be in the points lead after three rounds".

This week the team was pleased to partner with 751 Products producer of Mud Tool. According to team Manager Jim Douglas, "The muddy conditions put the Mud Tool to the test". "We cleaned the bikes all weekend long". "The 751 Products' Mud Tool made the clean-up job simple". "We even had a few extra samples that we handed out to a few of the other teams". James Dillow from 751 Products offered "We are really happy to be represented in the GNCC series by Team Xposure Motorsports". "The GNCC circuit presents the best testing grounds for the Mud Tool and we welcome the challenge"

The GNCC Series heads to Big Buck Ranch in Union South Carolina for Round #4 on April 12-13. To find out more about the GNCC Series sponsored by Can-Am visit <http://www.gnccracing.com>.
